

Josie Inman is beginning her fifth year as Assistant Band Director at Kennedale High School.

While at Kennedale, Mrs. Inman's band has consistently received 1st Division ratings at UIL Concert and Sight Reading Contest. She currently assists the high school Marching Band, conducts the high school Symphonic Band, teaches beginner flute/woodwinds, and assists at the Junior High School.

Before coming to Kennedale, Mrs. Inman spent three years as the Head Director at New Diana Middle School and Assistant Director to New Diana High School. While at New Diana she directed the 7th Grade Band and taught beginner woodwinds and percussion as well as assisted with the high school band. Since teaching she has had appearances at the UIL State Marching Contest and conducted the New Diana High School Band at their 3A State Honor Band Concert.

She is a 2009 graduate of Wills Point High School in Wills Point, Texas. In 2013 she graduated Summa Cum Laude with her Bachelor of Music Education from Stephen F. Austin State University. While at SFA, she was a member of the Wind Symphony, Orchestra of the Pines, Lumberjack Marching Band, Flute Choir, and Steel Drum Band.

Mrs. Inman is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda, ATSSB, TBA, and TMEA. She has been married to her husband, Michael, since June 2015. He is the Youth Minister at First Baptist Church Grand Prairie, where they currently live. They both enjoy spending time with family and friends, traveling, the Texas Rangers, and hanging out with their church family and community.
